

BLAST FROM THE PAST: BEHIND THE MISSION: GOSIA'S PRIVATE MESSAGE TO THE TAYGETANS (2022)

Published 31 March 2026 by Cosmic Agency, Gosia

Note from Gosia: This transcript is a follow up chat with Athena regarding the private video I recorded for the Taygetans in February 2022. Please watch the video to understand the context.

February 2022

Gosia: Just recorded my video. It's a lot of rambling, perhaps I will cut something out.

Swaruu X (Athena): Rambling is good sometimes.

Gosia: I think they might say I am being naive. Just sitting down here and not knowing the full story. I only have some facts in front of me.

Swaruu X (Athena): I don't know how much you know, but I'd say that a lot!

NEXT DAY

Gosia: Did you show my video?

Swaruu X (Athena): Your video has great acceptance here. Needless to say by me, to the point where I was thinking that some kind of public version of it must be published. Not all have seen your video yet, but DK, Alenym, Aneeka, Raguel and Kassia have, more a bit later will, including Nai'Shara that has not seen it yet. But she will. Oh yes and Yazhi of course! Mari as well, at the same time. Yazhi was visibly very happy! And she needed to hear that!! And very much!

Gosia: Did she think it was ok what I said about her?

Swaruu X (Athena): Yes, she needed that lifting. Visibly happy again. And I'm not done showing your video. Halfway.

Gosia: Well I was also hoping maybe some Yazhi haters can start to see things differently. I am interested in those and how they react. Cause if Yazhi supporters like what I said, well that's preaching to the choir through, haha.

Swaruu X (Athena): The biggest Yazhi hater may very well be Yazhi herself! So she did need a few words of serious intelligent and well argued appreciation.

Gosia: I could have added more about you in the video perhaps.

Swaruu X (Athena): I don't need you to say anything extensive about me. I'm just starting my journey and mission here. But thank you. Yazhi does need that, and Aneeka. Those two.

Gosia: I wasn't sure what to say about Aneeka as I understand that she is not in the eye of the recent conflict you had. So I focused on you two.

Swaruu X (Athena): Yes, Aneeka was not to blame in the conflict. Aneeka was more of an example of a battle damaged soldier. And Aneeka's problem is not only an eye problem, it is a systemic problem, her whole body is in that state.

Gosia: Is she going to go to Temmer?

Swaruu X (Athena): I don't know.

Gosia: I feel she must be away from here. From this environment. And so should others most probably.

Swaruu X (Athena): Yes, we don't need them here in that state. But I noticed something a while ago. While that conflict here was going on, the Sun was having a massive corona ejection. I don't like coincidences, but it may be an energy portal of some sort that permitted the entry of who knows what entities and thought patterns.

Gosia: Well, Yazhi should know something perhaps.

Swaruu X (Athena): I think she knows but doesn't tell, because she was in some kind of a trance while that was going on. Perhaps Yazhi was under attack.

NEXT DAY

Gosia: So did the group against Yazhi see the video?

Swaruu X (Athena): They respect you and your work, and your point of view.

Gosia: Haha, but?

Swaruu X (Athena): And I mean they honor it, not just "respect" it. So this is not about you, or Robert, or your work. This is more of a personal matter here.

Gosia: I am aware that I am not up there, and that this is deeper yes.

Swaruu X (Athena): They feel no one hears them when they say that this interaction with humans, expandedly and not with you and Rob, is hurting them and should be stopped. Not because it is "wrong" or "not useful". But because it is too costly for the people involved in this side. They feel they are "protecting" us all, even me.

Gosia: And it is not costly in this side? We could get sick tomorrow. It's a decision we make. It hurts only the ones who choose to do it.

Swaruu X (Athena): And the ones they feel that are pushing this to a drastic point are me and Yazhi, and more specifically Yazhi, not even me, I'm only Yazhi's tool in her mind.

Gosia: If their job is to protect the crew, then they should send the whole crew home. Being near Earth in general is risky and "hurts". So how come they are not returning?

Swaruu X (Athena): It is a general risk to be here, yes. High technology or not, we are vulnerable. And they already stated that they are not going home. They can go home, but they won't. And they seem to be incapable of seeing that even though they may be right, they are now the ones that are causing most of the stress in the crew and the friction. So they are not "protecting" the crew, in the end they are the ones causing separation between us all in here and causing all this friction, by far, and hurting the two girls in the process.

Gosia: They should not impose on those of us who want to continue. When you feel you have a mission, you see it through. If they remember past lives... they should know there is no death. I don't care if I get killed because of what I do. I still wouldn't change a thing. They are being invasive with their "protectiveness".

Swaruu X (Athena): They claim that Swaruus see death as irrelevant, making us dangerous. Because, according to them, we mind control people into battle.

Gosia: No one gets minds controlled to the battlefield who doesn't want to be mind controlled. Look at Xeniel! He left!

Swaruu X (Athena): Yes, and he is happy.

Gosia: What about the part about Yazhi in my video? Did that make any splash? Would they be more open to Yazhi?

Swaruu X (Athena): It was just perfect. To the point where while I was watching it I wanted to tell you that some kind of public variant of that same message should reach the public.

Gosia: Ohh but I won't be able to repeat it the same way haha. It was just for the Ts. But thanks.

Swaruu X (Athena): With the same intention, but for the public. Explaining why you continue to do this, why you feel it is important. This would also be like a message to everyone against us, and to the ones that follow us as well. It's way too good and way too clear to remain only for the Taygetans.

Gosia: Wow, thank you! But the important thing is... what did those Yazhi sceptics say? It was meant to them. I would like them to be more open to Yazhi.

Swaruu X (Athena): They actually didn't say anything. They kind of know when to shut up.

Gosia: Let's hope though something reached them and they could be nicer to Yazhi, not so afraid.

Swaruu X (Athena): Their point is that they feel that we should all stop feeding Yazhi's over inflated ego (their view) and stop feeding her overactive imagination. They feel that when Yazhi states that she is "us all", it is a coping mechanism rooted in a child's fantasy.

Gosia: I addressed some of that in the video. So, in other words, it fell on deaf ears?

Swaruu X (Athena): But this they said before the video, after seeing it they said nothing.

Gosia: Saying nothing could be a good sign.

Swaruu X (Athena): Yes. Yazhi now is saying that they are not to be blamed for the fight that we had here. Yazhi says that she was under a very strong astral or psychic attack and that's why she was catatonic during all that. What was going on inside her manifested outside. The mess outside may have reflected her inner stuff, she says! Yazhi says it was her fault for being with her astral guard down knowing that countless entities want to hurt her.

Gosia: That's a lot of pressure on Yazhi to take that on herself!

Swaruu X (Athena): She is under a lot of pressure, a lot! She claims that we are all only aspects of her, manifested outside as other people, but there are only ideas and being other people is just an illusion. And that goes all the way up to Source, being that there are no other people, we are all one.

Thank you again for the video. I think the version for the people would be interesting.
