Gosia: Athena, what do you think of this news out there that supposedly the Cabal leaders go to Antarctica to surrender to Extraterrestrials & Earth Alliance, to discuss terms of their surrender?

Swaruu X (Athena): How come nothing useful is stopping from the point of view of what humanity needs, and needs yesterday because it's already too late for most vaxxed?

No, no way that is possible, but this also sounds as distorted truth. Meaning that world puppet leaders go to Antarctica to "surrender", more like pledge their allegiance to their controllers, Deep Cabal, Reptilian and other non-human races representing Federation. Not as in surrendering after a war. Pledging their allegiance yes.

So basically distorted truth. And the top controllers to whom they pledge their allegiance and "surrender" as in Federation representatives are permissive and under the rule of letting the human population go through, and learn from, their mistakes. So they will not intervene as described by many, and we insist this subject is the same Q/QAnon theme, only applied to space, and it is most certainly controlled by three letter agencies.

About Antarctica. It's basically where human governments meet ET government (Federation). It's basically a place where they (all involved) can control humanity from the surface with high tech bases, knowing that it's off limits to the human population. There are old bases, some in ruins, some ancient, some with destroyed cities, secret archaeological sites, and many new bases, military mostly, both human and non-human, mostly bordering the entrance to inner Earth. Those bases are all Federation controlled.

Gosia: A question, if they are Federation controlled, and all those Reptilians going there, you say representing Federation... so the Federation works with those Reptilians, and those negative races? Is that a Viera, Andromedan, sector of the Federation? I don't think so, as they are ignorant of what's going on, no?

Swaruu X (Athena): Yes, they are working with, or include Reptilian leaders of various races, cannot know which, but logically those on Earth. How they coordinate, we cannot know exactly but they do. Viera sector does not know apparently.
