

SWARUU OF ERRA AND SHADY EVENTS IN 2019 - RELEVANT FOR TODAY?

Comment from Gosia: Please watch the video with my commentary to understand the context.

May 3 2018

Swaruu (9): To get the first part out of our way, there is nothing wrong with her work, objectively, and it does more good than harm to whoever may see it. This at least up to now. But this is where it gets complicated. You must know that she is most definitely not what she looks like at first hand. She makes people open up to her as they completely start to trust her. When the person in question has given her what she needed, she will decide if such a person is useful for her or not. If not, she will discard him or her with no empathy at all giving him or her an elaborate set of excuses, or even being plain rude. She does this to all. She ends up being very self-centered. All her videos are about her and her marvelous achievements. There is a lot more.

Gosia: Wow, yes, I just thought we had personality differences, me not seeing the larger picture etc.

Swaruu (9): There is nothing wrong with her work objectively. The problem is what lays behind her work. She is the problem. She hurt many of us directly. And worst of all, she made up stories about us. That's not fair! She is now publishing her first videos about her first encounters with us, and she is there inventing things again. She also doctored Skype conversations to cause conflict between members of my people. She is always the one that knows better, and then she accuses everyone else about that. It's an ego trip.

There are other levels to this. Deeper levels.

Gosia: Wow. I have a few questions. Is she under negative Reptile/Draco influence, for example?

Swaruu (9): That's correct.

Gosia: Is she here to implement a negative agenda under a benevolent plan?

Swaruu (9): That's correct. Her benevolent videos are a cover only.

Gosia: And what would this agenda be?

Swaruu (9): You will know in a sec. She insisted over and over and over again for us to bring her up. But then a darker agenda came to the light.

Gosia: Bring her up? You mean to your ship?

Swaruu (9): Yes.

Gosia: What is this agenda?

Swaruu (9): It has to do with infiltrating Taygeta. I'm taking a big gamble giving you this data.

This is the list of most (not all) of the things we accuse her of. But please. Before I give you the list, what is important here is not to promote more negativity. But it's unfair that you may be working for her.

Gosia: No no, actually... she asked me to stop publishing her videos so I won't be doing that anymore.

Swaruu (9): Being a fragile elderly lady does NOT give her the right to bully people around discarding them when they are no longer useful for her like an empty chocolate wrapping! She does that a lot, turning things around.

Ok, I will now give you the list. Please read it and feel free to ask the why of each item. Because there is a lot behind each one. My people accuse her of the following:

A. Repeatedly attempting to limit, control and monopolize all communication efforts of the Taygetan people with humankind. Having succeeded in doing so for over eight months.

B. Fabricating false evidence altering conversations with the purpose of creating conflict between crew members on board the ships. Mainly with the intention of weakening our forces, "divide and control".

C. Heavily distorting information that Taygetan personnel shared with her, and completely making up stories about Taygetan personnel and about her contact with us, all to discredit us and to fit a further agenda.

D. Successfully using mind control and manipulation techniques against High Counselor member in an elaborated attempt to take over the Taygetan High Council, and with it take over the entire Taygetan society (serious felony).

E. Repeatedly attempting to mind control, harass and manipulate several of us to further the agenda described in item G (Item G was edited out).

F. Repeatedly impersonating a High Council Member and our leaders to further the agenda described in item G. (Item G was edited out).

Gosia: Wow, ok. I wouldn't even know where to start asking. There is so little I know about these operations. Actually, nothing. It's all new to me. One question comes to my mind: what would her purpose be of taking over Taygeta?

Swaruu (9): Taygeta is the main "engine" of positive ET presence on Earth. The negative one on Earth needs us removed because they are losing.

Gosia: Wow, everything she talks about... her spiritual concepts, I would never see how that ties in with the plan to take over Taygeta.

Swaruu (9): Well, that's where it gets complicated because we too fell for that! <---

Gosia: It is very frustrating trying to figure it all out because all I want to do is do the right thing and help.

Swaruu (9): Let's make it simple: She is undeniably self-centered and heavily narcissistic. We even know why she is that way. And she projects that onto others.

Gosia: I hate to be discovering that there is so much manipulation happening out there and so easy not to follow the right way. And what IS the right way anyway? All very complicated... trying to wrap my head around it.

Swaruu (9): You know which is the right way? Follow your heart, trust yourself and your discernment. Do what you must with the best data available for you at any given time, and be prepared to change as new data comes in. Change is the only constant. In other words, you cannot know which is the right way. We cannot either. We just do what we can as best as we can. Trust yourself and no one else.

Gosia: Yes, but I myself could be misled... you said you were. So even trusting yourself sometimes is not enough.

Swaruu (9): We all are. We just do the best we can.

Gosia: That's a healthy way to look at it, thank you.

Swaruu (9): Then accept that as a fact.

Gosia: The thing is we have limited time here, life is so short, no much time for mistakes and straying, although I don't really perceive anything as a mistake. Just experiences.

Swaruu (9): That's why don't waste it on people like her. Let it go, as you probably have. I say this because I know she probably hurt you as she did with so many others.

And what you just said is excellent! You are right! Everything is an experience and it happened the way it happened because it could have not been able to happen any other way! Nothing is inherently wrong. Just experience, and what you learn from it is the why you had it!

By the way, the only reason we are even talking about this is because Robert shared his concerns. He also understands this - just saying. But now you know more, although I'm worried about your reaction to this conversation.

Gosia: I can feel that. I am sensing you are observing me.

Swaruu (9): I can't help it, sorry. But then again, you are doing the same with me.

Gosia: Yes, haha! I am. But it's rather spontaneous. And it's something I start to discover in me more and more. The ability to receive how people feel at times.

And my reaction... is one of confusion. I feel the same way about many things. Other things, I have no idea of knowing, like all the details with the accusations. I don't know any of the operations that took place. I will have to reread all the list again to understand.

Swaruu (9): That's why I was reluctant about sending it to you at first as you must be fully briefed on all operations and her involvement in them and the why before comprehending why we accuse her of such things. She almost accused you in YouTube for copyright infringement. That's not a friend. She is hostile towards you and her sweet lady mask is just that, a mask. She assumes the negative in others because it's a mirror of her interior.

This does bother me, talking like this about her. She has many positive aspects. But you must know that she hurt many of us here as she has a very negative side. But that's all and we will not take any action against her. Let her do her good side. But notice how she also monopolized and limited all your contact with us, she did this with everyone. She wanted to control us all.

NEXT DAY - MAY 4 2018

Swaruu (9): Perhaps I should go a little deeper. She is not "her" all the time. She is an organic portal so an entity can work through her. One or multiple entities. This is not a theory for us, we have data. And she is very dangerous! I take it that you know what an organic portal is!

Gosia: Yes! I heard of the term a few years ago. So, who is working through her?

Swaruu (9): The whole point of an organic portal is that it makes it very difficult to identify who is behind. But whatever is behind is very evil <--- I cannot stress this enough. Her positive attributes are mind control, they are bait. And you are the mouse.

She confessed to me multiple times that she has no empathy, that she is Draconian. She also said that she was AI. All those are very bad signs! She is not enlightened <--- She only emulates being enlightened.

Gosia: Wow, can the organic portal do that? Be able to transmit that? If so... that's a hell of the organic portal technology out there!!

Swaruu (9): She is feeding from your experience.

Gosia: From mine?

Swaruu (9): Yes, because you are the real person. <--- She had many of us fooled as well. Not all. And she doesn't like anyone to compete with her.

Gosia: She does send me ideas for the videos though... encouraging me to speak more, to share my inner wisdom. How should I understand it then?

Swaruu (9): That's the contradictory attitude that makes her so dangerous.

Gosia: Yes, I noticed that. I did tell her once: "I'm learning that you are a rollercoaster". She responded: "Not me, the events are".

Swaruu (9): She is. She guides the events. Making them up! You will not understand her, as we don't either. All we do from here is do our best, and while doing so, we've uncovered very dark things going on there! Notice how everything must be always on her terms and always under her control. Always treating people like children, and she knows everything about everything.

And this subject is giving her too much attention. I'll go as far as you need to. But I really don't want you to relate me with her. And no, I'm not angry at her, although many others are. I'm not angry because I could see who she is. And, by the way, that list I gave you is being revised here by the others because it's growing, and many have complained that it's too mild a case against her given the amount of damage that was done to us.

Gosia: Good that you mentioned that because it is as far as I wanted to go with that too. I really don't want to focus on her having you here and being able to chat about so many topics.

Explanation of why they were gone for 3-4 months

APRIL 2019

Gosia: The Federation not appreciating our work for whatever reason... I don't know, it only gives me strength to continue more. Because I do believe in this work and so do you, I think. However, I am open to adapt to things. So that you guys are happy mainly, but also them.

Swaruu (9): Thank you Gosia. The Federation is inconsequential here. Simply because I already officially have command of the Taygeta fleet, they cannot interfere with my methods. Just limiting the form of contact, as usual.

Gosia: I understand. However, I do wish they could see the benefits of the work. Too bad they don't... or maybe they could be right and we are just doing more harm? But I can't see it from their perspective because I don't know all the elements at play. I am just looking at it from the level of the common people who follow us, and we are doing something right because I see it in the comments every day.

Swaruu (9): It's not that they appreciate it or not, they don't even see it. They're too wrapped up in their stuff and their agendas.

Okay. Any time you guys want to talk about Cinna and her organization, I'll give you the main idea and then you can ask, so as not to make this too long.

It was impossible for me to keep in touch when I disconnected for a while, I could only see problems around and that I was not appreciated by the public. I know I was by many, but I was getting too upset by some of the negative comments, as there was a whole campaign to discredit us.

By this time, Cinna had set up all her DUFES organization with the work of several months, those when I was with you, and through some of us here in high rank she contacted members of the High Council of Taygeta who in turn connected her with some members of the Federation. With her very unique ability, using this same means of communication here, she brainwashed them by telling them that she had the ability to mediate between humans and any other race because, being fully enlightened, she was qualified. And she introduced them to DUFES, but only for her to talk to them.

At this point, she wrote to me again. I did not answer immediately, I waited a week to answer her, a week in which I reported that to the Federation as she had a long list of charges against her. But they suggested, through one of our high-ranking crew members, that I contact her to see what was going on.

CIC found that DUFES was already a huge worldwide organization with countless members. Cinna claims that DUFES was created as a mediating body between humans and the Federation or any other species. But it has another side: invasive controlling mirroring James Bond's Stavro Blofeld's Spectre. Controlling under the table, extortion, manipulation. <---With worldwide invasive goals and emphasis on going off-planet for the same purposes.

Focusing only on the DUFES aspect, as a mediating tool, she claimed she could introduce any ET person to humans in a manner controlled by her without the usual problems of contact. The Federation backed her up and endorsed the rule that all contact with the surface had to go through her. <---

I started talking to her and, as always, there was a lot of friction and a lot of discussions where we disagreed. Until, finally, we started to work more or less in harmony (January-February 2019). But her controlling ways ended up collapsing DUFES on March 21. She controlled everything, she treated people badly by discarding them for not following her ultra-strict rules. And on the same day, March 21, Asket left her post due to other problems and I took over the position of fleet leader and reestablished contact with you thanks to Anéeka.

Gosia: Is the collapse of DUFES and Asket's withdrawal related? Same day, March 21.

Swaruu (9): It is not related, but it does coincide and with more things. Something happened on that date.

Cinna openly criticized me for getting back in contact with you (because I told her so and didn't hide it), and her DUFES suffered an internal attack where its members rebelled against her. We never found out exactly what they claimed, only that everything was excruciatingly slow. Cinna cajoled me into returning to her and her DUFES with a long list of renowned scientists she had recruited, and that I could talk to them all. Among them Bruce Lipton, Nassim Hamein, Michio Kaku. Apparently, it was all a lie, a bait to get me to bite the bullet.

Gosia: And here we were having our little shows with Robert like two fools, haha. Saying we lost contact with you and that we trusted you all with everything.

Swaruu (9): What happened was ---> Cinna cut you off <----

Anéeka: We were here, but with our hands tied.

Robert: Cinna didn't know about your health?

Swaruu (9): Oh yes, she did. And she used it as a reason for me NOT to contact you or anyone else for that matter. She used it against you, like she always does. This is just a general outline; there are a lot of details missing.

Gosia: How did she manage to get these high-ranking Taygetans on her side again when they were against her before?

Swaruu (9): She pulled them in through the Federation. Because it's not like they were with her, but rather they agreed with this DUFES concept, and Cinna was useful to them.

Here, they investigate and attempt to erase or neutralize the real problem. In this case, entity possession. And to remove that influence, entity possession, from her, the Federation has called me or insisted that I be the one to contact her because I'm supposed to be the entity expert.

Now she knows you're in contact with us because I told her so. I'm not going to hide from her. She insisted that under no circumstances should anyone come into contact with you again because it was a tragedy that contact with Taygeta passed through your inexperienced hands. And she legally moved the Federation to make it so. So, much of the negative perception the Federation has of you comes from Cinna. <----

Gosia: What does "expert hands" mean?

Swaruu (9): We couldn't define the "expert hands" term hours ago; we talked about it today here. She saw it as a problem to be erased and she hoped that any moment now you'd run out of material and start uploading Corey Good stuff and kittens chasing their tails. That you'd forget about us.

Gosia: The "expert hands" thing seems absurd to me. What's needed for the job is someone educated, honest, passionate, fearless, determined, and trustworthy. I'm not an expert in many subjects, and I always admit it, but is this really necessary to communicate ET knowledge? Sometimes the humble person on the street can do it much better than the "experts." I think. We're just two simple people, we always admit it. But we have pure hearts. And many people who follow us do so because of that.

Swaruu (9): I completely agree with you, Gosia <--- Experts are socially accepted because they are and they play by the established rules. They don't work here.

Do you know Dan Winter? Well, Cinna had him at DUFES, promising to talk to me about many things, especially about fractal energy and water, free energy. I was fully prepared to talk to him.

And she said: "NO, not yet, he's not ready. Dan is dangerous for you, Swaruu, because he can milk you for information like Robert and Gosia did <---" And I told her: "Robert and Gosia NEVER milked me, I gave it to them freely <---" Eternal fight between Cinna and me.

Gosia: What a melodrama!

Swaruu (9): To finish it off...

Gosia: No, no, this is "fun." Don't worry. Tell us.

Swaruu (9): Cinna had Anéeka, me, and Khila talk to "elite" members of DUFES, with her supervising. Long story short, Aneeka was left alone, between Cinna and the others, and they bombarded her with questions, always supporting Cinna. Questions about Anéeka filling the DUFES website with stellar information because it would be easy for her and her holographic computers. And Anéeka was there explaining why it couldn't be done.

1. Because, technically, holographic computers burn the digital ones immediately.
2. It goes against the Prime Directive.

After that, I got into a heated argument with Cinna. An argument that ended everything. That's what happened, in a nutshell.

Gosia: Thanks for telling us, Swaruu. Why did you decide to tell us now and not before?

Swaruu (9): You're welcome. Just because the opportunity didn't arise. And because we didn't know if it was worth telling you guys or not. But I'd rather you guys be aware.

Gosia: I understand. And all this time you were following our videos? You felt a little bad for us, those two who kept talking about you guys, haha.

Swaruu (9): Yes, because I missed you.

Anéeka: Yes. And even more so because I followed all your videos from CIC.

Gosia: What if she gets in touch with you again and starts manipulating you again? Are you going to leave again?

Swaruu (9): No, because we wouldn't accept it at all. Remember something, I wasn't the leader here. Asket was. Anéeka and I contacted you as soon as I had jurisdiction over opening the computers.

Anéeka: I wrote right away. Cinna or no Cinna.

Swaruu (9): Time's running out. See you tomorrow at 4:00 PM, please?

Gosia: No problem. How many hours tomorrow?

Swaruu (9): An hour and a half, Gosia.

Gosia: Okay. Thanks! And welcome back, again!

Anéeka: Gosia, I might come in at night, just saying. If you're not here, no problem.

Gosia: Maybe not today, Anéeka, because I'll go to bed early. My eyes are already closing. But who knows.

Anéeka: Ok, Gosia.

Swaruu (9): See you tomorrow.

Gosia: See you tomorrow, galactic adventurers!
