

ZA'EL AND SWARUU OFFICIAL CHANNEL UPDATES ( ENGLISH)

Published 20 May 2023 by Swaruu Official - English

Mari Swaruu: Hello. I'm Mari Swaruu.

As you know, Za'el and Arien's YouTube channel was hacked and completely taken over a few days ago. We are glad to inform you all that Google has returned the channel to its rightful owner, so expect a new video in a few days whenever they are ready.

Many YouTube channels were hacked in the past few days, so we have discarded that it might have been a direct attack against us. They most probably were professional criminals who are looking for easy money, also using cryptocurrency scams.

The way they entered the computer is not clear yet, and this would be important to know. But what is important is that Za'el and Arien have their channel back.

As for me, I've super protected my channel, Swaruu Oficial, with the highest level of security systems available, military grade. I removed Za'el's presentation video for safety reasons, and I will be re-uploading it again today at the same time as I upload this video and the Spanish version of it as well.

As soon as possible, I will also start to upload older videos to my English channel, Swaruu Official, so it can operate as a backup should anything strange happen and for it to start getting some attention.

There has been a lot of hacker activity against YouTube channels lately, so I'd advise you that if you have one, now would be the time to augment your security levels as much as possible, just to be safe.

Thank you for watching my videos and for liking and subscribing. I appreciate it a lot. You are the ones who make everything happen and be worthwhile.

Next, I will include two messages from Za'el and from Arien. They are a few hours outdated because it was written when their channel was still down, but I'll share it with all of you anyway.

See you in the next video. Take care.

Mari Swaruu

Za'el: Greetings to all. By now, most of you will know what has happened. The channel that Arien and I use to transmit our messages was taken over by someone and, in the end, it ended up being hidden from YouTube, but we are already working on getting it back. If we can't, we will come back with a new one, so no worries.

Arien: We have been studying and evaluating the possible reasons for this attack. As is well known, the Matrix operates on multiple layers, so there is no single cause. We will be back as soon as possible. We will get up and continue. Thank you all for staying tuned.
